ABOUT YOU

Please give details about the courses you have completed and describe any that you are currently pursuing or studying. Include the name of the course, the institution or organisation through which it was offered, the completion date (or expected completion date for current courses), and a brief summary of the key skills and knowledge you gained or are gaining from each course.

Please list the canine services you offer. We're keen to learn about your offerings, including training classes, behaviour consultations, and any specialised support.

Do you have any areas of expertise in the field of canine behaviour, e.g., certain breeds/specific behaviour problems etc? If so, please share with us

Please identify two individuals who have significantly shaped your understanding of dog behaviour, and describe how they have influenced you?

Please share two books that have profoundly impacted your understanding of dog behaviour, and explain why?

Are there circumstances under which you would find it necessary to use deterrents such as a water bottle or rattle can, for example during a dog attack? Please explain your reasoning.

What motivated your choice of ICB over other behaviour and training organisations, and what unique benefits do you believe ICB offers?

Do you possess additional skills, such as IT expertise, social media content creation, webinar organisation and moderation, or seminar organisation, that could contribute to ICB's efficiency and member education?

Please provide a concise overview of your experience with dogs. Aim for a maximum of 500 words and include any other relevant information that supports your application.

Thank you for taking the time to complete your application form. Please email this, alongside your photo and supporting evidence to Angela Pitman at at angelapitman@outlook.com and send a copy to intcaninebehaviourists@gmail.com. We will be in touch within 7 days to organise a date for your interview, or to request further details if necessary.

If you have any questions about the application process, please contact us.
